Hotel Fun For The Whole Family

Knowing which hotel to take the family to for a short break can require a lot of thought. Such factors including location, family facilities and price are all big priorities to bear in mind. Why not add some fun into the equation and stay at a hotel with themed bedrooms, making it even more of an adventure for your kids? Here are some hotels that have spectacular themes for their rooms.

Holiday Chessington Inn

Things go all African when you check into the Chessington World of Adventures Resort Hotel

Although you're in the middle of the county of Surrey, the hotels safari theme has an unmistakable African vibe about it. On the grounds outside the hotel there is their Wanyama Reserve where you can see animals such as zebra and antelope roaming - you can even upgrade your room so you have a view of the animals from your bedroom window! Pay a little extra and bag a themed bedroom perfect for families, with a tented sleeping area for the kids. If that wasn't enough, the theme park is right outside your doorstep; a fantastic all-round adventure for the family.

Alton Towers Resort

There is such a huge array of themed rooms available here that you'll be completely spoilt for choice.

Throughout the Alton Towers Hotel there is a Sonic the Hedgehog Room, Sleepover Room, Peter Rabbit Room and a Chocolate Room to name a few! Or you can stay at the Splash Landings hotel which has Pirate Themed Rooms for you and your family to enjoy. Whichever hotel you choose, your kids are sure to love it.

Drayton Manor Hotel

Drayton Manor theme park are opening their own hotel this summer.

This brand new hotel is still being built but is due to open in August 2011. It is set to have a Thomas the Tank Engine theme running through it, which is in keeping with the Thomas Land they have at the theme park. Expect character breakfasts and a few themed Thomas bedrooms - essential for families with children who love the famous blue steam train!

Disney Paris Hotel

With seven hotels to choose from at Disney Land Paris, the hard part is deciding where to stay!

At Disney's Hotel New York you can step into the Big Apple, go to the Wild West at Disney's Hotel Cheyenne or stay at the Disneyland Hotel where you can enjoy character breakfasts. Even better its just a few minutes walk away from the park. Your kids are sure to love the magic of Disney at the hotel and in the park.
