The USA, is a great place to try several different holidays!

There are several different holidays that you can enjoy in America. Not all of them need to be beach holidays or Villa holidays. There is so much more for you to indulge in. Florida holidays are a prime example, there are theme parks, water parks, beaches and mangroves, is that not enough diversity. The USA is great for trying out a whole host of different holidays.

- Take a Fly Drive holiday across the USA. The massive proportion of the USA, means there is so much to try and do. If you want to experience as much as possible, then a Fly Drive holiday could be best. Route 66 is a popular travel route for those that want to explore the USA. Although you don't travel through all the states, it is a drive from east to west coast. Here you just need to rent a really cheap car, then travel as far as you want. This means that you can take your travel journey in your stride, and do what you want. Just make sure that you aren't late for your plane, or late at all.
- Ranch holidays are becoming ever popular. Basically this is a holiday spent in the Wild West, with either cattle ranchers or horse drivers. Enjoying the outdoors adventure, has slowly become quite popular. Just you and your wits, including the guide of course. This allows you to get close to the wild and enjoy a completely different way of life, a real adventure!
- The Rail tours provide another very different way of exploring the USA. This is a much more romantic way to enjoy the beautiful scenery of the USA and there are options for 2 week rail journeys across the USA or just a couple of days! Stop off points allow you to visit many different famous landmarks and enjoy the country. Although you need to keep up with the schedule, you still get to see a lot!

Here are only some of the top different holiday types to enjoy! If you want to try something different, try one of these!
